BULLISH ENGULFING*GIGOPTIX*Signal Update

Our system's recommendation today is to BUY. The BULLISH ENGULFING pattern finally received a confirmation because the prices crossed above the confirmation level which was at 2.5900, and our valid average buying price stands now at 2.6000. The previous SELL signal was issued on 03/16/2016, 7 days ago, when the stock price was 2.4850. Since then GIG has risen by +4.63%.

Market Outlook

Let's jump on our white horses and go for a bullish ride. Today's candlestick has a white body and its close is above the confirmation level. The bullish pattern that was previously identified is finally confirmed and a BUY signal is generated. The trend is also bullish and perhaps it is the right time to participate in bullish fervor. The market is telling you about a new profit. Do not miss this bullish opportunity.

Candlestick Pattern Chart*Pattern Description

This pattern is characterized by a large white body engulfing a preceding smaller black body, which appears during a downtrend. The white body does not necessarily engulf the shadows of the black body but totally engulfs the body itself. This is an important bottom reversal signal. more...
